Ladies and Gentlemen:

In connection with my request that you sell the above-captioned securities as broker for my account, pursuant to Rule 144 (the "Rule") under the Securities Act of 1933, I hereby advise you as follows:

1. I am an affiliate of the Issuer.
2. In placing this order to sell, (check the box corresponding to the applicable representation)
 - I am acting alone and I have not agreed to act in concert with any other person for the purpose of selling securities of the Issuer.
 - I am acting in concert, or have agreed to act in concert, with other persons for the purpose of selling securities of the Issuer. I am aware that all securities sold for the account of all such persons shall be aggregated for the purpose of determining volume limitations of the amount of securities sold.

4. During the three months prior to the date of this letter I have not, and during the next three months I will not, alone or in conjunction with others, sell any stock of the Issuer under circumstances that will jeopardize the exemption from registration available under the Rule.
5. Neither I, nor to the best of my knowledge, any person whose shares must be aggregated with mine, have any other sell orders open in the above captioned Issuer's securities with any other broker or bank and will not place any sell orders pending completion of this order.
6. I acknowledge that you will rely on the representations made in this letter in determining whether to accept my order to sell the securities proposed to be sold pursuant to the Rule.

Very truly yours,
